HIGHLIGHTS OF THE MENTORING SESSION (2021-22)

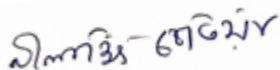

Name of the Mentor: NILAKHI CHETIA

Odd Semester, 2021

I tried my level best to discharge my responsibility as mentor to the mentees allotted to me in the meeting of the department. Initially I created an amiable and amicable environment among the students and developed their confidence so that they shared everything important and necessary with me. I stood beside them as in their pursuit of knowledge and course curriculum. I also extended help and all round support to them to face and overcome any stress if and when there was. Due importance was given on the newcomers and encouraged them to follow their course systematically. I took some extra classes with the newcomers and helped them keep pace with the advance learners. Some extra motivation was given to the advance learners as well.

Even Semester, 2022

In full spirit and mind I continued and discharged my responsibility as mentor to the mentees allotted to me in the meeting of the department. I motivated them to effectively follow their course curriculum. I supported those students who failed to give performance up to the mark in their end semester examinations and extended to them all round support to face the untoward situation and overcome the stress. I pointed out to them their possible mistakes in the examination and also gave them tips how to do well in examination. I gave strong emphasis upon the slow learners and motivated them to keep pace with the advance learners. I also inspired the advance learners to have wide vision of the competitive world and to equip themselves with more and more advance knowledge for competitive examinations

Name of the Mentor: DEVAJANI BAKALIAL

The students of each semester of the department are divided into six groups according to the number of faculty members in the department. The first thing I did was open a Whatsapp group with the students in my group. They were provided with the necessary books. Curriculum related issues as well as their personal problems were discussed. Also attempts were made to resolve. They were given information about workshops and competitions organized by various organizations on literature, culture, sports etc. They were encouraged to participate in these competitions, workshops.

I created a friendly environment with mentees where they could open up and talk about personal issues. They were given all kinds of assistance in mastering the subjects. They were also provided with the help they needed to shape their careers and personalities. I took some extra classes with slower learners. Advanced learners were also given additional platforms to help equip them with sound knowledge for their career development.
