

গড়গাঁও মহাবিদ্যালয়

GARGAON COLLEGE

NAAC accredited with 'B' Grade

BOOK DONATION DRIVE AT ADOPTED VILLAGE AS A PART OF EXTENSION ACTIVITIES OF THE COLLEGE

...social works movements...

Gargaon College organizes book donation drive at adopted village

Jiruddin Ahmed Sibsagar, May 23: Gargaon College, in collaboration with its Internal Quality Assurance Cell, Gargaon College Employees Association, and the teaching fraternity, organised a book donation drive at a primary school in Lonkak Gohain gaon, a rural village adopted by Gargaon College as part of its institutional and social responsibility on 21st May 2022.

The program was organized at the village in the gracious presence of renowned author and academician and Principal of Gargaon College, Dr. Sabyasachi Mahanta, IQAC Coordinator, Dr. Surajit Saikia, President of Gargaon College Employee's Association, Mr. Luhit Gogoi. The Headmistress of the school, Fraternity of the Mothers' Association of the school, parents, guardians and the students attended the drive with much anticipation. The prime objective of the program was to enrich the library of the school with books and thus a generous number of books of varied age group were donated. Dr. Mahanta, in his deliberation highlighted on the value of reading and how it leads to intellectual development of the students but also urged them to read voraciously and pledge to quench the thirst of knowledge. He also expressed his gratitude towards the school staff and hospitality. Dr. Surajit Saikia, IQAC coordinator, urged students and staff to be encouraging in preparation for the forthcoming Gunotsav. The drive ended with the optimistic hope that Gargaon College will continue providing assistance for the overall progress of the village.

Gargaon College, in collaboration with its Internal Quality Assurance Cell, Gargaon College Employees Association, and the teaching fraternity, organised a book donation drive at a primary school in Lonkak Gohaingaon, a rural village adopted by Gargaon College, as part of its institutional and social responsibility on 21st May 2022.

The program was organized at the village in the gracious presence of renowned author and academician and Principal of Gargaon College, Dr. Sabyasachi Mahanta, IQAC Coordinator, Dr. Surajit Saikia, President of Gargaon College Employee's Association, Mr. Luhit Gogoi.

The Headmistress of the school, fraternity of the Mothers' association of the school, parents, guardians and the students attended the drive with much anticipation. The prime objective of the program was to enrich the library of the school with books and thus a generous number of books that varied among age groups were donated.

Dr. Mahanta in his deliberation highlighted on the value of reading and how it leads to not just the intellectual development of the students but contributes towards the wholesome personality development. He encouraged the school students to read vivaciously and pledged to extend a helping hand to quench the thirst of knowledge. He also expressed his gratitude towards the people for their time and hospitality.

Dr. Surajit Saikia, IQAC coordinator, urged students and teachers to talk about the issues they are encountering in preparation for the forthcoming Gunotsav programme so that they may be resolved. The drive ended with the optimistic hope that Gargaon The college will continue to be closely involved by providing assistance for the overall progress of the village.

Newspaper Clip of the programme road which is popularly works, official works movement of increasing Mancachar etc places

Gargaon College organizes Book donation drive at adopted village

Khalruddin Ahmed Sibsagar, May 23: Gargaon College, in collaboration with its Internal Quality Assurance Cell, Gargaon College Employees Association, and the teaching fraternity, organised a book donation drive at a primary school in Lonkak Gohain gaon, a rural village adopted by Gargaon College, as part of its Institutional and social responsibility on 21st May 2022.

The program was organized at the village in the gracious presence of renowned author and academician and Principal of Gargaon College, Dr. Sabyasachi Mahanta, IQAC Coordinator, Dr. Surajit Saikia, President of Gargaon College Employee's Association, Mr. Luhit Gogoi. The Headmistress of the school, fraternity of the Mothers' association of the school, parents, guardians and the students attended the drive with much anticipation. The prime objective of the program was to enrich the library of the school with books and thus a generous number of books that varied among age groups were donated. Dr. Mahanta in his deliberation highlighted on the value of reading and how it leads to not just intellectual development of the students but contributes towards the wholesome personality development. He encouraged the school students to read vivaciously and pledged to extend a helping hand to quench the thirst of knowledge. He also expressed his gratitude towards the people for their time and hospitality. Dr. Surajit Saikia, IQAC coordinator, urged students and teachers to talk about the issues they are encountering in preparation for the forthcoming Gunotsav programme so that they may be resolved. The drive ended with the optimistic hope that Gargaon College will continue to be closely involved by providing assistance for the overall progress of the village.

For
knc exp me atti dep
the imr pro peo

Noi

Got

VIDEO LINK