About The Program

The Popular Talk organized by the Department of Commerce as on 9th July 2021 on the Importance of Financial Institutions in the Development of Rural Areas and Formation of Enterprises was a highly informative and engaging event. The resource person for the webinar was Miss. Mouchumi Khanikar, a well-respected expert in the field of finance and entrepreneurship.

During the Popular Talk, Miss. Khanikar discussed the crucial role that financial institutions play in supporting the development of rural areas and the formation of new enterprises. She highlighted the challenges faced by rural entrepreneurs in accessing financing and other resources, and emphasized the importance of financial institutions in addressing these challenges. Miss. Khanikar also discussed the different types of financial institutions that are available to rural entrepreneurs, including microfinance institutions, cooperative banks, and government-sponsored development banks. She explained how these institutions work and the types of financing and other resources they provide.

The Popular Talk was well-attended by students, faculty members, teachers, non-teaching staff and members of the local community. Attendees had the opportunity to ask questions and engage in discussions with Miss. Khanikar, allowing for a rich and informative exchange of ideas. Overall, the Popular Talk was a highly successful event that provided valuable insights into the role of financial institutions in supporting rural development and entrepreneurship. Miss. Khanikar's expertise and engaging presentation style made the event both informative and enjoyable for all attendees.

Rationality of The Program

The program will be helpful in developing interest of students towards entrepreneurship. They will also be able to understand the role of financial institutions in developing the rural areas.

OUR CORRESPONDENT

SIVASAGAR, July 10: A popular talk on the topic 'The Importance of Financial Institutions in the Development of Rural Areas and Formation of Enterprises' was organized by the Department of Commerce, Gargaon College, in collaboration with Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) on July 9.

The welcome speech was delivered by Dr Meghali Bora, Head of the Department of Commerce, Gargaon College. It was moderated by Anil Tanti, senior professor of the department. The online talk was inaugurated by Dr Sabyasachi Mahanta, Principal of Gargaon College. In his inaugural address, Dr Mahanta deliberated on the topic with reference to the current COVID crisis and spoke of the necessity of self employment, giving emphasis on the recent microfinance loan waiver initiative of the State.

The programme was also graced by IQAC co-ordinator, Dr Surajit Saikia who highlighted the significance of the chosen topic by referring to the globally acclaimed microfinance model of neighbouring country Bangladesh.

The distinguished speaker on the occasion, Mouchumi Khanikar spoke about the importance of rural development through rural entrepreneurship. The speaker very eloquently highlighted the role of financial institutions in the development of rural areas and the formation of enterprises therein. Besides, she underlined the various forms and ways by which financial institutions are engaged in supporting this form of entrepreneurship.

A good number of students, academicians and teachers across various institutions of the State participated in the event.
