Mehendi Competition Among Girls at Gargaon College College Week 2022: Gargaon College, known for its commitment to promoting cultural and traditional values, organized a Mehendi competition as part of the College Week 2022. The event aimed to showcase the beauty and intricacy of Mehendi, an ancient Indian art form, and provide a platform for students to display their talent and creativity. Students from various departments participated enthusiastically, highlighting the diverse cultural heritage of the college.

Competition Highlights: The Mehendi competition witnessed a remarkable display of skills and creativity by the participating students. A total of around 40 students took part in the program. The event showcased the students' ability to apply intricate designs and patterns, and their understanding of Indian cultural and knowledge systems. The competition proved to be an engaging and enjoyable experience for both participants and spectators.

Results: Mrs. Bonkia Buragohain, Assistant Professor, Geology was the Teacher in Charge of the Event. Mrs. Monurama Phukan, Assistant Professor, Geography and Mrs. Debajani Bakalial, Assistant Professor, Department of Assamese were the judges of the program. After careful evaluation and scrutiny by the panel of judges, the following students emerged as winners:

1st Position: Gargee Phukon from Geography Department secured the first position in the Mehendi competition. Her exceptional artistry, precision, and attention to detail were evident in her breathtaking designs. Gargee's unique interpretation of traditional Mehendi patterns impressed the judges and earned her the well-deserved first prize.

2nd Position: Miss Upasana Boruah, a student of the English Department was awarded the second prize in the competition. Her skillful application of Mehendi, along with her innovative designs, captivated the judges attention.

Upasana's ability to blend traditional and contemporary elements in her artworks was commendable and earned her recognition among the top participants.

3rd Position: The third position was jointly secured by Mohima Sonari from Botany Department and Gitanjali Devi. Both participants displayed exceptional talent and creativity in their Mehendi designs. Mohima's intricate patterns and Gitanjali's artistic flair impressed the judges, resulting in a tie for the third position.

Conclusion: The Mehendi competition at Gargaon College College Week 2022 was a resounding success, celebrating the rich cultural heritage of India and showcasing the artistic talent of the students. The event provided a platform for participants to express their creativity, skill, and knowledge of Indian cultural and knowledge systems. Congratulations to Gargee Phukon for securing the first position, Miss Upasana Boruah for winning the second prize, and Mohima Sonari and Gitanjali Devi for jointly securing the third position. Their remarkable performances and dedication to the art of Mehendi were truly commendable.
