50 Days Guidance for Competitive Exam in Collaboration with TCS

Brief Rationality of the Programme:

The Department of Commerce, Gargaon College, has been offering competitive exam guidance to its students for the last few years. Recently, the department collaborated with Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) to provide a better learning experience for the students. In this report, we will discuss how this collaboration has benefitted some of the students of the department.

The students of the Department of Commerce who received guidance for competitive exams through the department's collaboration with TCS had access to:

Improved Study Materials:

The collaboration with TCS has helped the department to provide better study materials for the students. The study materials provided by TCS are up-to-date and cover all the topics required for competitive exams.

Mock Tests:

The department conducted regular mock tests for the students, which were designed by TCS. These mock tests helped the students to evaluate their preparation level and identify their weak areas.

Expert Guidance:

The guidance sessions were conducted by experts from TCS who had years of experience in coaching students for competitive exams. The experts provided valuable insights and tips to the students, which helped them to prepare better.

Personalized Attention:

The guidance sessions were conducted in small batches, which ensured that each student received personalized attention. The experts from TCS also provided one-on-one guidance to the students who needed extra help.

Improved Performance:

The students who received guidance through collaboration with TCS performed better in their competitive exams.

Here are the lists of students from different departments of Gargaon College who have been benefitted from guidance for competitive examination:

Conclusion:

The collaboration between the Department of Commerce, Gargaon College, and TCS has been a successful initiative. The guidance provided by TCS has helped the students to prepare better for their competitive exams. The improved study materials, mock tests, expert guidance, and personalized attention have benefitted the students in various ways. We recommend that the department continue this collaboration with TCS and expand it to include more students.
