TITLE OF THE PROGRAM

RENOWNED ASSAMESE MOVIE SHOW

OVERVIEW OF THE PROGRAM

Department of Assamese in collaboration with IQAC has organized a day long renowned Assamese movie show. Many faculties and more than 100 students were present in the program. The main goal of the program was to teach the student about their culture and language. As movie provides authentic language input and helps improve vocabulary, listening, writing, and fluency in the target language. Movies also offer insights into culture, lifestyle, and different ways of thinking, which enhances language learning. Patience and perseverance are the keys to tackle arduous situations but we often long for that push that can drift us in the right direction. Movies have been, and still, are the best source of inspiration for all age groups including students. There are many inspirational movies that force us to think outside the box, evoke powerful emotions,
