Self-composed recitation competition on the occasion of

WORLD POETRY DAY

Overview of the Programme

The prime motto of the program was to promote the oral tradition of poetry recitals, as well as to promote reading, writing, and teaching of poetry. The Department of English and the Department of Assamese in collaboration with IQAC of the Historic Gargaon College conducted a bilingual (Assamese/English) self-composed recitation competition among the students on the occasion of World Poetry Day. The programme was inaugurated by Pabon Gogoi, Head and Associate professor of the Department of Political Science who enlightened the gathering on his insights on poetry and he also mesmerized the students with a beautiful recitation of one of his self-composed poems “Jibonor Rong”. Rajib Gogoi, Head and Associate professor of the department of English also put forwarded his views on the etymology and significance of the Word Poetry Day. Gogoi also inspired the students and teachers to take up their pens and let their emotions overflow and practice composing poetry during their spare time. Dr Jitu Saikia, Assistant professor, Department of English and Pranab Duwarah, Assistant professor Department of Assamese took the chair of Judges and conducted the programme
