International Literary Day

Title of the program:

International Literary Day

Date: 8/9/2022

Background/ Significance of the day:

The idea of International Literary day was first mentioned at the world conference of ministers of Education on the eradiction of illiteracy. The conference was held in Iran in 1965. The conference was as a fertile ground for the germination of an idea of a special day dedicated to promote literacy on a global scale.

Later , UNESCO officially declared September 8 as International Literacy Day. The day was announced during 14th UNESCO general Conference in 1966. A year later, the world celebrated its first international literacy day on September 8, 1966.

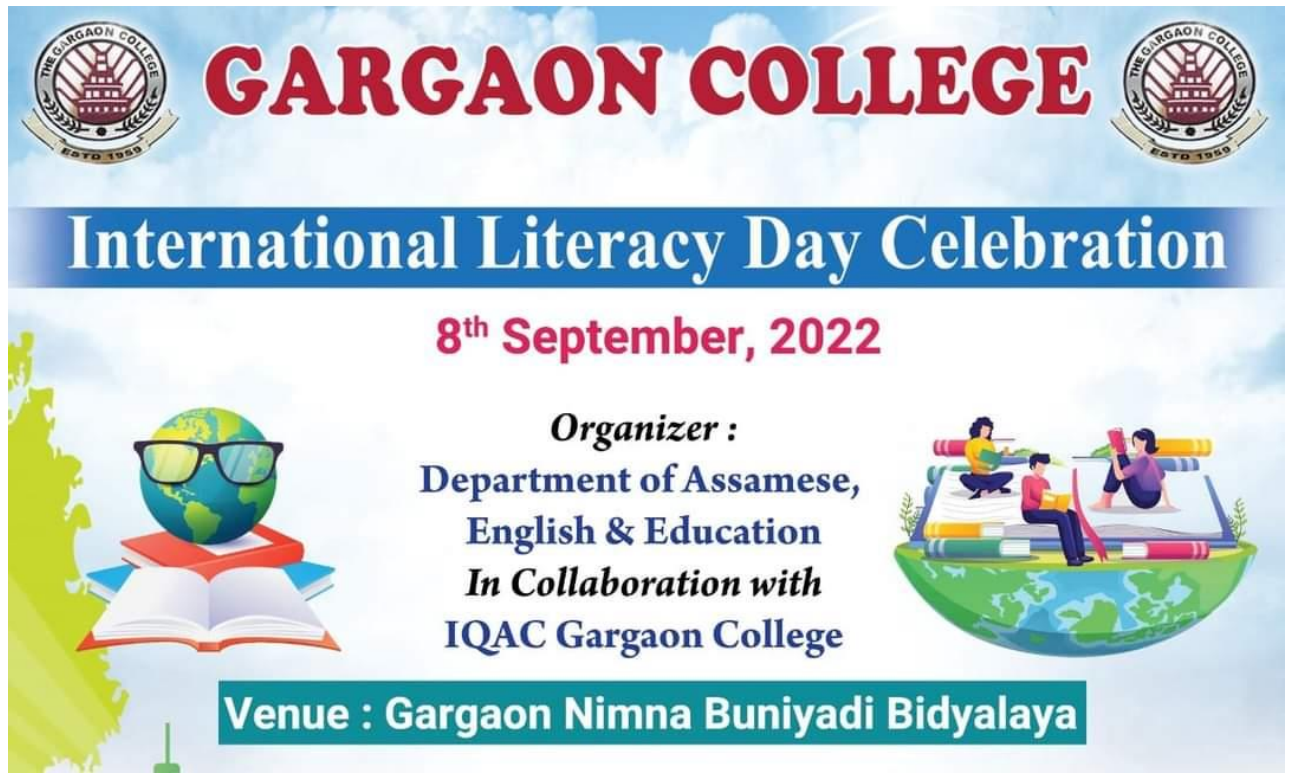

As per data shared by UNESCO around 775 milion people around the world are deprived of basic literacy skill. The data says that one in five aduits remain illiterate. The data also reflects vast gender gap between male and females. International Literacy Day serves as an opportunity for international organizations and government to work for promoting literacy.

About the program/Details of the Program:

A literacy campaign was organised by the Departments of English, Assamese and Education in collaboration with IQAC, Gargaon College in Gargaon Nimna Buniyadi Bidyalaya. The students of these departments engaged in activities such as singing, role play etc. they also taught the school students the basics of reading, spelling and writing.
