International Labour Day

Date: 1st May, 2023

Organizers:

Department of Assamese, Department of Economics, Department of Commerce

Significance of the Day:

International Workers' Day, also known as Labour Day in some countries and often referred to as May Day, is a celebration of labourers and the working classes that is promoted by the international labour movement and occurs every year on 1 May, or the first Monday in May. Every year different themes are assigned for Labour Day. For 2023, the theme for May Day was "A safe and healthy working environment as a fundamental principle and right at work"

Resource Person:

Smt. Binita Saikia Dey, Member, Assam State Commission for Women , Govt. of Assam

About the program/Details of the Program:

The Department of Assamese, Commerce, and Economics, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), Gargaon College, organized a program centered on "Rights and Security of Women Workers." The primary objective of this initiative was to cultivate awareness among students, the future workforce, regarding the rights and security afforded to women workers. Smt. Binita Saikia Dey, a distinguished member of the Assam State Commission for Women under the Government of Assam, eloquently addressed fundamental rights for women in the workplace. Her discourse encompassed the evolution of the status of female workers over time and expounded on the legal framework designed to ensure the protection and security of women workers. The program aimed to empower students with a comprehensive understanding of the crucial issues surrounding women's rights in the workforce, fostering a sense of responsibility among the future workforce towards creating a more equitable and secure work environment for all.
