About The Program

The 155th birth anniversary of Sahityarathi Lakshminath Bezbarua was celebrated on the 14th of October, 2019. The program started with a lamp lighting ceremony. The Head of Assamese Department, Dr. Arundhati Mahanta recalled the contributions of Sahityarathi to various fields of Assamese society, language, literature and culture. Sahityarathi's invaluable contributions in fields of poetry, drama, stories, novels, essays, plays, criticism, comedy, biographies, autobiographies, children's literature, history studies, journalism etc. was deliberated on and she also elaborated on how the present situation of the country could benefit from writings of Sahityarathi Lakshminath Bezbarua.

Assistant Professor from the Department of Assamese, Mr. Pranab Dowarah gave a lecture on Bezbarua's academic life, marriage, work life and literary works. Another Assistant Professor of the department, Devajani Bakalial, encouraged the students to study the literature of Bezbarua. The event was attended by Associate Professors of the Department Nilakshi Chetia, Runjun Hazarika and Priyama Dihingia, amongst the students of the department as well as from the college.

Rationality of the Program

Celebrating Lakshminath Bezbarua's 155th birth anniversary is rational as it honors his immense contributions to Assamese literature and culture. It helps preserve and promote his legacy, reinforcing cultural identity and pride. The event fosters educational opportunities about his works and their historical significance. It also strengthens community bonds by uniting people in celebration. Overall, it keeps his memory and influence alive for future generations.
