

Department of Mathematics initiate Students Orientation Programme

Students Orientation program was organized on 15- 07-2022 (Friday) in ICT Room of Department of Mathematics. The program was inaugurated by Dr. Kabita Phukon, Head of the Department. In her inaugural address she offer greetings to the new comer and highlighted the rule, regulation of college as well as spoke about the importance of study of mathematics.

Miss Sujata Goala, Assistant Professor, Department of Mathematics, apprised of the necessity of organizing Student Orientation Program. She reflected upon the fact that active participation of students in such events and get involved in the subject (mathematics) is essential to bring massive change in a student's academic performance.

All the Fresher's were introduced themselves one by one in front of the teachers and other students.

Dr. Kabita Phukon discussed about the important points of the CBCS system. She suggests the students to abide by the rule and regulation of the college and to avoid the minor infractions.

Mr. Harekrishna Mili discussed few tips and encourage the students to overcome their fear and vice. He emphasis on the completion of their Graduation on time.

Miss Sujata Goala discusses few ways to learn mathematics conceptually. She also discussed on career options after completing B.Sc. in mathematics.

Mr. Alok Konwar asked the students to actively participate in College week including any other extracurricular activity.

The vote of thanks was extended by Mr Harekrishna Mili, Assistant Professor, Department of Mathematics. He extended vote of thanks to the fresher's for their auspicious presence in the meeting. He extended vote of thanks to faculty members for their valuable time, active participation, and suggestions.

Photographs of the Meeting

