About the College Week

The historic Gargaon College celebrated its Sports, Literary and Cultural Week from 23th to 29th January 2023. The annual college week organized under the auspices of the College Students' Union Body began in a grand way with the opening ceremony of the event. Mr Kaustav Chetia, President of Gargaon College Students' Union, kicked off the college week celebration with the flag hoisting. It was followed by planting a sapling by Dr Pobon Gogoi adviser of the Gargaon College Students' Union. Dr Rina Handique, Vice Principal of Gargaon College paid homage to martyrs in the opening ceremony organized for the event.

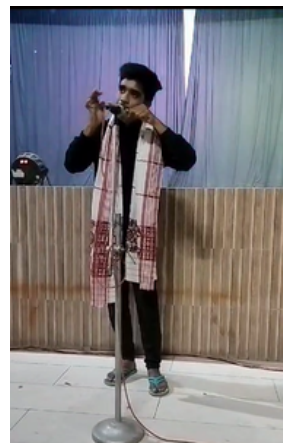

The week-long cultural, literary and sports week continued with a plethora of events. The event received a hugely enthusiastic response from the participants. The overwhelming participation of the students in the various events in the seven days made the college week a successful one. Competitions were held on various events like games and sports, literature, drama, songs, dance, debating, rangoli, etc. wherein the students showcased their talents and got prizes for their exemplary performance.

A major attraction of the event was the Ramp walk wherein the participants displayed their inimitable talent with exquisite display of costumes and vibrant designs. The colourful multi-diverse cultural rally which was also a part of the competition struck the overwhelming attention of both the students and teachers of the college.

The winner of various competitions held during the college week was given away prizes in the same event Dhritipragya Phukon was adjudged as the best singer of the year while Ankur Gogoi was awarded the best debator of the year. On the other hand, Gayatri Bharali, Rosin Raj Borthakur and Prantika Boruah bagged the Best Director, Best Actor and Best actress titles respectively. Sukanya Dowarah won accolades as the best literary figure. In sports, Bishal Boruah (Boys) and Pallabi Phukon (Girls) were adjudged as the best athletes of the year. 'Oikonomia', the Wall magazine of the Economics department got the first prize. In the Cultural rally competition, the Sociology department became the winner and was awarded the first prize. Darshana Chetia won the title of Miss Gargaon, in 2023. In the drama competition, the Geography Department was awarded the first prize for the drama 'Maa'. The Department of English bagged the best department award in the Annual Sports, Literary and Cultural event. Dr Sabyasachi Mahanta, principal of Gargaon College appreciated and offered his thanks to all the participants for their active participation and cooperation in making the event a successful one. The seven-day sports, literary and cultural event ended with the cultural function organized in the evening with the presence of a large number of students and teachers.
