Mehendi Competition Among Girls

2022-2023

Mehendi Competition Among Girls at Gargaon College College Week 2023:

As part of College Week 2023, Gargaon College, which is renowned for its dedication to advancing traditional and cultural values, hosted a mehendi competition. The purpose of the event was to give students a stage where they were able to express their skills and originality while also showcasing the elegance and complexity of mehendi, an age-old Indian art form. With great enthusiasm, students from all disciplines took part, showcasing the college's rich cultural legacy.

Highlights of the Competition

There were fifty female students that took part in the activity. Students that participated in the Mehendi competition displayed an amazing range of abilities and creativity. The students' proficiency with complex patterns and designs, as well as their comprehension of Indian culture and intellectual systems, were displayed at the event. Both participants and spectators found the competition to be an interesting and fun event.

Results:

Mrs. Bonkia Buragohain, Assistant Professor, Geology was the Teacher in Charge of the Event. Mrs. Monurama Phukan, Assistant Professor, Geography and Mrs. Debajani Bakalial, Assistant Professor, Department of Assamese were the judges of the program. After careful evaluation and scrutiny by the panel of judges, the following students emerged as winners:

1st Position:

Chitrani Dowarah from Department of Botany secured the first position in the Mehendi competition. Her magnificent creations demonstrated her extraordinary talent, accuracy, and attention to detail. The judges were fascinated by Chitrani's unique interpretation of traditional Mehendi patterns, and she was duly awarded the first prize.

2nd Position:

Srijona Gogoi from Department of Chemistry was awarded the second prize in the competition. Her skillful application of Mehendi, along with her innovative designs, captivated the judges' attention. Srijona was recognized among the top participants for her outstanding artwork, which demonstrated her ability to combine traditional and contemporary themes.

3rd Position:

The third position was jointly secured by Tamanna Sultana from Botany Department and Prastuti Bezboruah from Sociology Department. Both participants displayed exceptional talent and creativity in their Mehendi designs. Tamanna's intricate patterns and Prastuti's artistic flair impressed the judges, resulting in a tie for the third position. Conclusion.

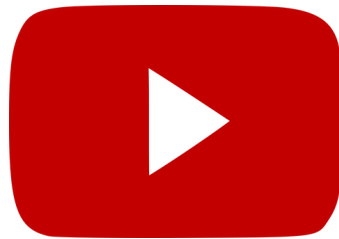

4th Position:

Dikhita Borgohain from Department of Geography secured the fourth position. Her ability to blend tradition with innovation results in mesmerizing patterns that showcase both skill and imagination.

The Mehendi competition at Gargaon College 'College Week 2023' was a resounding success, celebrating the rich cultural heritage of India and showcasing the artistic talent of the students. The event provided a platform for participants to express their creativity, skill, and knowledge of Indian cultural and knowledge systems.
