Overview

A National Webinar on “End Child Labor Today” was jointly organized by the Department of Zoology, Department of Assamese, Women Cell (GCTU), IQAC and 11 Assam Girls (I) Coy NCC, Gargaon College on 12th June, 2023 to celebrate World Day Against Child Labor. The webinar held in blended mode, was inaugurated by Dr. Rina Handique, Vice-Principal, Gargaon College and Head, Department of Zoology, Gargaon College. In her inaugurating speech she spoke about the negative consequences of child labor and employment on various institutes. The keynote speaker for the programme was Dr. Pobon Gogoi, Associate Professor and Head, Department of Political Science, Gargaon College. In his enlightening speech he highlighted the reasons behind the child labor such as poverty, lack of access to education, demand for cheap labor, limited labor protection, arm conflicts, lack of awareness etc. He further described about the adverse effects of child labor such as deprivation to education, health and safety issues, negative economic effects, social and moral responsibilities etc. In his speech he defined about the scenario of child labor in India and across the world. At the end he emphasized on the initiatives adopted by United Nations (UN) for combating child labor across the globe. He further added the legislations involved in Indian constitution for combating child labor and the penalties associated with the offence of child labor. The programme was attended by 44 participants which included students and faculty members.
