Highpoints of Mentoring Session

Odd Semester: 2022

A mentoring session was conducted under my mentorship of the department. I have informed mentees about the name of text books and reference books for preparing notes for the examination. I also advised to read government publication on economic situation of the country.

Even Semester : 2023

I was guided the mentees who have been preparing for the final examination regarding the question answer writing. Moreover after the results of the previous semester were declared, the SGPA's of the mentees were recorded in their respective report cards and mentees were motivated to do better in the coming examinations.

HIGHPOINTS OF MENTORING SESSIONS

Name of the Mentor: Nilutpal Chutia, Assistant Professor

Department: Economics

Odd semester, 2021

Mentoring sessions were conducted with the assigned mentees. The profiles of the B.A. 1st Semester mentees were collected. The structure of B.A. programme (CBCS) was discussed with them. They were informed about the course outcomes. They were also advised to attend the classes regularly and prepare class notes of each class on daily basis. They were also advised to communicate with me for any kind of academic matter.

Regular discussions with the mentees of 3rd semester and 5th semester were conducted throughout the semester. Since the attendance of some mentees was found very poor in the last semester, they are advised to attend the classes regularly. The students with backlogs in some papers of previous examinations are asked to maintain regular class notes. Report cards of the mentees were also updated after declaration of their last semester examinations.

Even Semester, 2022

During the mentoring sessions conducted in this semester, the poor performing students in the examinations were identified and they were given special counselling throughout the semester. They were advised to prepare notes for coming examinations and asked to submit the notes to the course teachers for evaluations.

Report cards of the each mentees were updated with the SGPA grade points of the last semester examinations.
