

List and Description of Courses which Address Gender Issues

Course Code	Department	Title	Topic	Description	Syllabus Link
C-305	Commerce	Human Resource Management	Gender perspective across workplace policies and practices	Encompass disparities in occupational health risks, unequal access to welfare benefits due to gender pay gaps, challenges in achieving work-life balance influenced by traditional caregiving roles, and gender biases affecting performance evaluations and advancement opportunities. Addressing these gender dynamics is essential for fostering equitable workplace environments and ensuring inclusive policies that support all employees effectively.
DSE-601	Commerce	Labour and Industrial Laws	Gender issues within the framework of Labour Laws	Efforts to ensure gender parity in labour legislation are crucial to fostering fair and inclusive workplaces where all individuals can work free from discrimination and with equal opportunities for advancement.

ECNDSE103	Economics	Basic Demography	Population trends and structures	Illuminate disparities and dynamics in population trends and structures.
ECNDSE201	Economics	Demographic Analysis	Disparities and dynamics within populations	Helps identify and understand inequalities, inform policy interventions, and promote inclusive development strategies that enhance gender equality across population studies and demographic research.
EDNH102	Education	Sociological Foundations of Education	Education and society	Focuses on the education of women and marginalized communities, addressing concepts of equity, equality, and access in education. This highlights the importance of inclusive educational practices that promote gender equality and empower all genders through education.
EDNH401	Education	Education in Pre-Independent India	Struggle for gender equity in the educational landscape	Highlights the historical context of women's education and the disparities faced by different genders. The curriculum examines the status of women's education during the Vedic, Buddhist, and Islamic periods, noting both the presence and limitations of educational opportunities for women.
EDNH501	Education	Education in Post-Independent India	Development and evolution of the educational landscape	The inclusion of women's education as a significant focus highlights the efforts to improve access to education for women and reduce gender disparities. Additionally, the course discusses constitutional provisions for women's education and the challenges in implementing these provisions.

EDNH502	Education	Education in World Perspective	Gender equity in education global scenario	The curriculum emphasizes the development of women's education within these national systems, exploring how each country addresses gender disparities and promotes educational opportunities for women.
EDNH601	Education	Emerging Trends in Indian Education	Addressing gender disparities in education	Highlights the significance of gender education as an essential perspective, discussing the importance and challenges of women's education in India. It emphasizes the need for inclusive education, ensuring equitable access for all genders. The course also examines the role of the Indian Constitution in equalizing educational opportunities, including for women and marginalized genders.
EDNH602	Education	Child & Adolescent Psychology	Understanding the diverse experiences and challenges faced by children and adolescents	Ensures a comprehensive understanding of child and adolescent psychology, promoting an inclusive educational approach that addresses the unique needs and experiences of all genders

DSEED503 / GEED301	Education	Inclusive Education	Understanding diverse needs of children	Addresses inclusive education practices are sensitive to the diverse needs of all children. This includes understanding the unique challenges faced by girls, considering gender dynamics in classroom settings, and promoting equality and equity in education policies and practices.
DSEED601 / GEED201	Education	Human Rights Education	Challenges faced by different genders	Ensures that human rights education is inclusive and sensitive to the unique challenges faced by different genders. This includes addressing violence against women, ensuring equal rights and opportunities for all genders, and promoting gender equality in societal and educational contexts.
DSEED603 / GEED202:	Education	Gender and Education	Gender in education	The course aims to equip students with the knowledge and skills to understand, analyse, and address gender issues in education, thereby contributing to a more equitable and just society.
GE-202	English	Gender Studies	Maya Angelou 'Phenomenal Women	Explains that a woman's beauty is not defined by societal standards , but by her inner power and capacity to radiate confidence and joy.

GE-202	English	Gender Studies	Bell Hooks 'Feminism is for Everybody: Passionate Politics'	Hooks argues that feminism cannot succeed without men's participation in the movement, men can exist as worthy comrades in the struggle because is anti sexism not anti-male.
GE-202	English	Gender Studies	Nalini Jameela 'Autobiography of a Sex Worker'	Jameela was forced into the sex trade at a young age due to poverty and lack of options. Despite the immense challenges she encountered, Jameela managed to escape the industry and later dedicated her life to advocating for the rights and dignity of sex workers.
DSE 50110	English	Modern Indian Writing in English Translation	Fakir Mohan Senapati "Rebati"	The story is an allegory for female education and emancipation.
DSE 60200	English	Post Colonial Literatures	Bessie Head 'The Collector of Treasures'	The story centres on a group of women in prison for killing their husbands.
DSE 50140	English	World Literatures	Kishwar Naheed, 'The Grass is Really like me', in We the Sinful Women	It is a declaration of the independence of women who did not subscribe to societal and cultural norms.
DSE 50100	English	Women Writings	Emily Dickinson 'I Cannot Live With You', I'm Wife; I Have Finished That'	Compares a singlewoman's life to a wife's.

DSE 50100	English	Women Writings	Sylvia Plath 'Daddy', 'Lady Lazarus'	The female speaker dies and is resurrected multiple times.
DSE 50100	English	Women Writings	Eunice De Souza 'Advice to Women'	The poet advice the women to be self sufficient.
DSE 50100	English	Women Writings	Alice Walker 'The Color Purple'	Struggle of an African American teenager who survives rape and abuse at the hands of her father and her husband.
DSE 50100	English	Women Writings	Charlotte Perkins Gilman 'The Yellow Wallpaper'	Sheds light on the treatment of women's metal health during 19 th century.
DSE 50100	English	Women Writings	Mahasweta Devi 'Draupadi'	A metanarrative, capturing the effort of the survival of the marginalised.
DSE 50100	English	Women Writings	Mary Wollstonecraft 'A Vindication of The Rights of Women'	Emphasises that women should be treated with equal dignity and respect to men, especially regarding education.
DSE 50100	English	Women Writings	Rassunderi Devi, excerpts from 'Aamar Jiban'	Gives insight into the life of a housewife in the household of a prosperous Bengali Zamindar.

GGRM601T6	Geography	Evolution of Geographical Thought (Theory)	Feminism	The study of geographical thought includes an examination of feminist perspectives, highlighting how gender issues have influenced and shaped geographical theories and methodologies.
GGRM DSE 602BT6	Geography	Social Geography	Gender dynamics within various social categories	The study of social geography examines the spatial distribution and implications of gender dynamics within various social categories, shedding light on how gender influences and intersects with factors like caste, class, religion, and race in geographical contexts.
GG2G3	Geography	Geography of Gender Studies	Geography of Gender Studies	Explores the intersection of gender with various geographical perspectives, examining how gender influences spatial dynamics, architectural design, environmental activism, and feminist research methodologies. It critiques normative constructs and explores postcolonial and queer theories to understand the complexities of gender within spatial contexts.
C1	Political Science	Understanding Political Theory	Critical and Contemporary Perspectives in Political Theory	Examines how different democratic theories and practices accommodate or challenge gender equality. It addresses debates on gender representation, participation, and the impact of democratic processes on gender issues.

C3	Political Science	Political Theory: Concepts and Debates	Political theory on gender equity	Explores how debates on rights, justice, and democracy intersect with gender issues, addressing inequalities, representation, and the impact of political theories and practices on gender equality.
C5	Political Science	Perspectives on International Relations and World History	Gender roles in global perspective	Examines how international relations theories and historical events have impacted gender roles, inequalities, and feminist critiques within global politics, highlighting efforts towards gender equality in diplomatic and international policy arenas.
DSE-2A	Political Science	Human Rights in a Comparative Perspective	Human rights and gender	Addresses structural violence, exploring how systemic inequalities based on caste, race, gender, and indigenous status impact human rights in various countries.
GE2	Political Science	Human Rights, Gender, and Environment	Gender within the broader context of human rights and social inequality	Allows students to understand gender not as an isolated topic, but as a fundamental aspect of social organization that intersects with other key social and political issues.
GE-2A	Political Science	Feminism: Theory and Practice	Exploration of feminist theory, history, and contemporary issues	Provides students with a comprehensive understanding of feminism and gender issues, equipping them to analyse and engage with these topics in both academic and real-world contexts.

C3	Sociology	Introduction to Sociology	Feminist perspectives	Cultural, Liberal, Socialist (Marxist), and Radical—each seek to address gender inequality through unique lenses, emphasizing cultural values, legal reforms, economic structures, and systemic power dynamics, respectively.
C7	Sociology	Sociology of Gender	Gender as a critical sociological lens	Introduces gender as a critical sociological lens for examining various social fields. It also explores and interrogates the categories of gender, sex, and sexuality.
C9	Sociology	Sociology of Kinship	kinship studies	Provides a comprehensive understanding of the intricate relationship between kinship and gender, encouraging students to think critically about the ways in which gender shapes and is shaped by social structures and practices related to kinship.
C12	Sociology	Sociological Research Methods – I	Feminist Method: Approach and Design	Aims to cultivate a nuanced understanding among students of how sociological research methods can both reflect and challenge existing gender inequalities within society. This critical examination encourages students to adopt inclusive and ethical approaches to research that consider diverse social realities and experiences.
DSE01	Sociology	Urban Sociology	Intersection of urban spaces with social	Aims to deepen students' understanding of how urban spaces are socially and spatially organized around gender, influencing identities and power dynamics	everyday experiences, social interactions, and opportunities for urban residents. This critical examination encourages students to explore strategies for creating more inclusive and equitable urban environments that promote gender justice and social cohesion.

DSE02	Sociology	Agrarian Sociology	Gender with agrarian practices, structures, and movements	Deepens students' understanding of the complexities of agrarian societies and the specific challenges faced by women and marginalized gender identities within rural economies. It encourages critical analysis of gender dynamics in agricultural production, labour relations, and socio-economic development initiatives aimed at promoting gender equity in agrarian contexts.
DSE03	Sociology	Social Stratification	Gender within the context of social inequalities	Students gain a comprehensive understanding of how gender operates as a fundamental axis of inequality within sociological analyses of stratification, identity, mobility, and social reproduction. This critical examination encourages students to interrogate and challenge existing inequalities while envisioning more equitable social structures.

GE4	Sociology	Gender and Violence	Gender issues are central to understanding the dynamics, causes, and consequences of violence within societal frameworks	Equips students with a comprehensive understanding of how gender identities intersect with societal structures, norms, and policies related to violence. It encourages critical analysis and reflection on strategies for prevention, intervention, and advocacy to combat gender-based violence and promote gender equality in diverse social contexts.
NSS01	Skill Based Courses	NSS and Youth Development	Inclusive participation	Emphasize gender equality, encouraging inclusive participation and leadership among youth.
NSS02	Skill Based Courses	NSS in Social-economic Development	Gender participation	Focuses on entrepreneurship and the essential skills needed for documentation and reporting, enabling students to contribute to social development effectively and uphold gender equality.

Jeebo
Principal
Gargaon College
Simaluguri, Sivasagar (Assam)

